CUATRECASAS, GONÇALVES PEREIRA

Thomas Gaultier - French/American – Coach 1

Thomas is a qualified Lawyer and certified mediator, a Ph.D candidate, as well a Lecturer in two major Portuguese universities, who practices and teaches negotiation and mediation. He is the Vice-President and co-founder of ICFML, a non-profit organization aimed at training and certifying mediators, as well as Of-Counsel with Abreu Advogados. He frequently writes and speaks internationally on dispute resolution related topics, mostly regarding civil and commercial aspects.

Carolina Sá Duarte – Portuguese

Carolina is a young and dynamic Law student, currently enrolled in the final year of her Bachelor's degree. Only 21 years old, Carolina has already been a trainee at a Bank and the President of the Organizing Committee of a Summer School. Carolina stands out as hard working and by putting the highest levels of commitment into her every single project.

Ana Maria Maia Gonçalves - Portuguese/French – Coach 2

Ana is a lawyer, lecturer, mediator and organizational developer. She teaches in Portuguese Universities, frequently speaks in International conferences, and regularly facilitates on topics related to self-development, negotiation and conflict resolution for global organizations. She lived and worked in US, Australia, Europe and is now based in Asia. One of her goals is the development of Portuguese speaking mediators. She is the President of ICFML (IMI QAP), an IMI certified Mediator and a PCC-ICF coach.

Filipe Maia Alexandre - Portuguese/Brazilian

Filipe is a Portuguese Law & Management MSc student. Despite being young, Filipe already collected a wide range of experiences, such as working as an intern at a law firm or as a trainee tax consultant at one of the Big Four. In his free time, Filipe enjoys traveling and collaborating with non-profit organizations, such as the European Law Students' Association.

Francisco Lima - Portuguese

Francisco is a 20-year-old Law student. Fascinated by the way society works, he is a dedicated student always intrigued about knowing the "why's" behind everything he learns. He is particularly interested in international public law and international relations. A negotiator by nature and a reformist by spirit, he looks forward to put this in practice at the competition.

Tiago Rocha - Portuguese

Tiago is a Law student from Portugal, currently enrolled in a master's degree in labor law. He is characterized as hard worker and a critical thinker. While down to earth and realistic, he is also a friendly and upbeat person.

Both Coaches are lecturers at Católica University and the founders of ICFML.
